

Hydria

mod: 2290
design by Gianluca Minchillo

The project arises from the idea to create a union between classicism and modernism, and, in fact, Hydria revives the classic vase used as an umbrella stand in a contemporary way. An object, tall and tapered, that decorates without burdening, elegant, refined and suitable for all settings and decorating styles. Hydria is made of steel.

Pictures

Dimensions

