

Casambrella

mod: 1710

design by Ilya Titov

Casambrella is an attractive umbrella stand created with steel wire that expert craftsmen have cut, bent and welded by hand to resemble the structure of an umbrella. The handle completes the structure which rests on a circular base with a high rim to hold the water that drips from the wet umbrellas.

Pictures

Dimensions

