

Bowery

mod: 2205

design by Davide Tonizzo

New York Sound is a collection of clocks based on three important musical movements that have traveled the world and characterized film and culture of the American metropolis. Bowery refers to the Punk style and the bar CBGB that represented its soul. The clock in fact takes its name from the street where it was. The dial made of steel structure is upholstered in black pleather surrounded by 12 studs that indicate the hours, represents the leather jacket symbol of punk, the pendulum has the shape of a guitar. Battery quartz movement.

Pictures

Dimensions

