

Hindia

mod: 2310
design by Manuel Barbieri e Francesco Diomedi

A clock inspired by the charming details of Indian lanterns, bringing elegantly together tradition and innovation, emotion and austerity. A linear object, simple but well-defined, which honors a great culture. The framework is of an octagonal shape and is made of varnished wood. Quartz movement.

Pictures

Dimensions

