

Home Sweet Home design Stefania Scaranello

Home Sweet Home is a tabletop cuckoo, made of wood, that stems from living of his young designer, from the emotional relationship created with everyday objects reshaped with new features.

A witty object, a soft lines little house that colors and souls desks, shelves, bedside tables for a gentle awakening.

The dial, with black hands, and chimney are always white while the cuckoo case can be in a single color (red or green) or with orange front and white back.
